

Local firm go over the edge

On a cold and wet Saturday morning on the 1st November 2008, three members of staff from local solicitors Symes Robinson and Lee got out of bed to raise money for Children's Hospice South West.

Children's Hospice South West rely almost entirely on the generosity of people in the local area and have now been providing care and respite to families across the South West for nearly 13 years. Denise Strawbridge, Veronica Bampton and Sam Tapp together with the generous sponsorship of the Partners and local businesses Cooksleys Estate Agents, Weekes Estate Agents, Burgoynes Estate Agents, Bower & Bower Estate agents, Shane West Building Contractors, R Goodier Plastering Co. and RH Gooding & Sons, managed to raise £530.00 for the charity.

They went over the top of the 90 ft high Harrison Building at Exeter University just after 11:30am and all three loved the opportunity to challenge themselves and at the same time raise funds for such a worthy cause.

Judy Price of Childrens Hospice SW said " It is truly wonderful what the day achieved, and it is brilliant that local people and businesses are continuing to support this local charity. Sincerest thanks to Denise, Vee, Sam and all who donated". The next event which is being organised to raise money for Childrens Hospice SW will be a 15,000 sky dive at Dunkeswell on 21 February 2009 which the staff at SRL are also hoping to get involved in. If anyone would like more information they can telephone 01271 325270.

The Firm are always keen to get involved in charitable events and have taken part in the Lympstone Commando Challenge, Race for Life, In the Pink events for Breast Cancer Care and the Exeter Office was also a 'drop off' point for Gemini FM's "Master of Bra's".
